

“EVERYBODY LOVES A PARADE!”

Well we are hoping this is true. As you know by now the big NOONAN CENTENNIAL is on JUNE 30th 2007. And it just wouldn't be complete without a good “ole fashion” parade.

We would love to have young, old, kids, families, classes, clubs, businesses, groups, organizations, ect. Anyone or anything (within reason) to be part of the big parade down Main Street NOONAN.

All you have to do is decide what great float, car, wagon, horse, cat, dog, or even goat(ha,ha) you want to enter. The list is possibly endless!

So go ahead and fill out the entry form, call, write, or even e-mail any of the parade committee members.

There have already been some really good ideas, so come join the parade. Put on your thinking caps on, or get together with others. And we will surely see why “Everybody Loves A Parade”.

Looking forward to hearing from all of you.

GOOD LUCK!!!
